The Fourteen Holy Helpers are a group of saints venerated together in Roman Catholicism because their intercession is believed to be particularly effective, especially against various diseases. This group of Nothelfer ("helpers in need") originated in the 14th century at first in the Rhineland, largely as a result of the epidemic (probably of bubonic plague) that became known as the Black Death

Preachers must stimulate, inspire, fire up, present God-birthered vision and opportunities to their listeners. Preachers need to be flowing in the gifts of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 12) - and releasing their people to flow in them too. Fire spreads! When preachers have "fire in their bellies," they are going to start fires in other people.

Saints in the Catholic Church do not come a dime a dozen. Goa is blessed with its holy connections to St Francis Xavier and St Joseph Vaz. And for many years the prayers on the lips of Goans of many backgrounds especially Catholics is "Lord make our Padre Agnel a Saint in your Holy Church". Even when he was alive Fr Agnelo was talked of as a saint.

Herald: Ven. Fr Agnelo: The making of a Saint

The Holy Spirit came down upon him not in the form of fiery tongues but in such a way that it took possession of all his thoughts, desires, feelings, and longings. He filled St. Seraphim. Thus did the Holy Spirit fill many, many saints, and thus did the Holy Spirit fill also all of us unworthy contemporary Christians, for in the Sacrament of Chrismation and Baptism we are all given the grace ...

Niccolosa takes you to the ancient sacred sites that define the city centre, and then out to her neighbourhood, where her sister is abbess of Florence's most prestigious convent. Along the way, she tells you about sainted bishops and fiery preachers, but also what a wealthy Renaissance widow can do on behalf of her community.
