Hotel World - Wikipedia

Ali Smith is starting to grow on me. I read some of her books a few years ago and they left me cold (i.e. The Accidental). However, I've really enjoyed her Seasonal Quartet. I'd heard a lot of mixed reviews of Hotel World so felt a big apprehensive about reading it. This is a short book but that doesn't mean its light or can be rushed ...

Hotel World, by Ali Smith. A series of interconnected narratives by different characters which all link to an accidental death in a hotel. This wasn't a particularly easy read, partly because the story wasn't told in a straightforward way - you come to realise what's happened by a process of synthesis of the different accounts - and partly because some of the styles were hard work (for example ...

Ali Smith's writing is haunting and acute. (...) Hotel World might have been depressing were it not for the invigoratingly sharp writing." - Vicky Hutchings, The New Statesman "Where British reviewers see ambition, subtlety and wild imagination, all I can detect are leaden whimsy and mechanistic storytelling. Hotel World turns out to be a thin ...
