"The classic Wordsworth poem is depicted in vibrant illustrations, perfect for pint-sized poetry fans."

When the world-illuming sun rushed upon Night like a brigand,
My weeping bedewed the face of the rose. My tears washed away sleep from the eye of the narcissus,
My passion wakened the grass and made it grow. The Gardener taught me to sing with power,
He sowed a verse and reaped a sword. In the soil he planted only the seed of my tears
And wove my lament with the garden, as warp and woof. Tho' I am but a mote, the radiant sun is mine:
Within my bosom are a hundred dawns.

collaboratively, developing skills such as creative thinking, planning, drafting, peer evaluation and editing. It is the saga of riots that had spread much before the partition of India. There were murders, rapes, abductions, looting, and arson, and the government machinery miserably failed to control it. The law and order had gone haywire. The novel is mainly the story of three young boys who had lost their entire family during the riots. One of them though, academically brilliant and career wise, reached a coveted position but could not adjust with the unfamiliar ambiance and was a social misfit and a failure in life. The other two, through their sheer grit, made a mark in their life and bravely faced all the odds and obstacles in an alien milieu. The novel is full of pathos, events, drama, romance, and typical Punjabi sense of humor. The book advocates against religious bigotry without being didactic, because of which mankind is suffering till date. It is a great subject for a movie.
