A Whale tale is about twelve year old Lucinda who has a magical meeting with Hugo a five year old sperm whale. They have encounters with lots of comical characters and find friendship and learn respect and responsibility.

A child and a whale embark on a beautiful journey together in this lyrical, gorgeously illustrated picture book about friendship, hope, and love for the world around us in the vein of The Fisherman & the Whale and Cynthia Rylant's Life. Where land becomes sky and sky becomes sea, I first saw the whale and the whale first saw me. A child joins a friendly whale for a magical journey of discovery. They sail the blue ocean, dance with dolphins, and tail-splash seagulls. But the child also sees an ocean filled with plastic trash. And that inspires a promise of help, for the whale and all earth's creatures.

Onboard a vessel that would make Jacques Cousteau green with envy, the Cat and Co. take to the high seas in search of whales, dolphins, and porpoises—those aquatic mammals known as cetaceans. While learning how cetaceans stay warm without hair, have teeth or baleen, swim in troops, spyhop, spin, breach, and see via echolocation, kids are introduced to almost 20 different species—including sperm, right, humpback, and blue whales; Gulf, spectacled, and finless porpoise; and boto, common, hourglass, and bottlenose dolphins. A shipshape selection for summer reading! "The Cat in the Hat's Learning Library shows young readers that books can be entertaining and educational at the same time. This is a wonderful series!" —Barbara Kiefer, Ph.D., Charlotte S. Huck Professor of Children's Literature, Ohio State University

While at sea, Kermit and his nephew are befriended by a pair of whales whom they subsequently save from whalers.

Looking forward to a trip to the beach, where he hopes to find a seashell that will enable him to hear ocean sounds, Splat the Cat is frustrated by his inability to find anything but broken shells until he receives help from a special new friend. By the best-selling author of the Russell the Sheep series. Simultaneous. 125,000 first printing.

Jonah's Whale of a Tale is a whimsical story taken from the Old Testament book of Jonah, and written in an inspirational and unique way for children of all ages. While many concentrate on the fact that Jonah was swallowed by a whale, the author has pointed to the lessons God was portraying. This story, scattered with poetry, gives children a chance to learn about God and how he offers forgiveness to all who ask. The book also gives the parents the opportunity to discuss the lessons in the story. Eve enjoyed taking a book of the Bible and telling the story in a way that children can enjoy. She felt an inspiration to choose Jonah and she hopes God is pleased with her presentation. Eve, the name she is called, has a degree in Communications, with a major in Radio and TV, from the University of Illinois. While at the University she had an honorary live children's show on the education station. She is a native of Indiana and loves Spring Mill State Park. She was Assistant Editor of Bursts & Duds, an employee's publication, at the Crane Naval Ammunition Depot, Crane, Indiana. Eve now lives In Arizona where she taught Children's Television One and Two for Plaza Three Talent Agency, and served twelve years as a City Council Aide. She hopes you enjoy her story.

A stirring and heart-warming tale of a young deaf girl who is determined to make a difference, the perfect read for fans of Wonder. Iris was born deaf, but she's never let that define her; after all, it's the only life she's ever known. And until recently she wasn't even very lonely, because her grandparents are both deaf, too. But Grandpa has just died and Grandma's not the same without him. The only place Iris really feels at home anymore is in her electronics workshop where she loves taking apart antique radios. Then, during a science lesson about sound waves, Iris finds out about a whale who is unable to communicate with other whales. The lonely whale awakens something in Iris. She's determined to show him that someone in the world knows he's there. Iris works on a foolproof plan to help the whale but she soon realizes that that is not enough: Iris wants to find the whale herself. One stolen credit card, two cruise ship tickets, and the adventure of a lifetime later, Iris and the whale each break through isolation to help one another be truly heard in ways that neither had ever expected. Winner of the Schneider Family Book Award, young children category, for books that embody an artistic expression of the disability experience.
