The importance of being able to read for meaning should never be underestimated. The ability to decode text is not enough. It is vital that children understand what they are reading. More importantly, it is fundamental that they enjoy what they are reading, so that they grow up to become lifelong readers. The passages in the Brilliant Activities for Reading Comprehension series are designed to do just that. They provide children with a variety of engaging, enjoyable texts that will grab their attention, and indeed their teacher's attention as well. The types of comprehension passages range from newspaper articles and dialogues, to plays, stories and poems. They gradually increase in difficulty as you progress through the book, and through the series, encouraging children to develop their ability to read for meaning and use a range of strategies to engage with the text. Tasks range from simple factual recall and vocabulary work to more open-ended questions enabling the reader to provide a more personal response. The cross-curricular activities provide a wealth of ideas for extending the passages further and are ideal for fast-finishers.

passage. One page of written response questions has been added (on 7/28/2016) for each passage. Supports the following standards: Common Core Standards ELA.Literacy.RI.1.1 and ELA.Literacy.RL.1.1: Ask and answer questions about key details in a text. Common Core Standards ELA-Literacy.RI.K.1 and ELA-Literacy.RL.K.1: With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a text. These Reading comprehension social studies passages are also useful for choral reading and fluency work. I work through these passages with students during both small and whole group lessons, having students "answer" the questions with bingo chips instead of circling the answers. We discuss how to choose the best answer for each question and how to look back in the passage to check answers. I then send the passage home for students to read to their parents and complete for homework. I find this is a great confidence builder for kids and that parents take pride in hearing their child read the passage and then explain how to choose the best answer for each question. The following passages are included: - Tails - Faster - Wheels - The Storm - Camping - Reading Comprehension Workbook Grade 1 - Leaves - Moose - From the Farm - Balls - At Night - Where, Oh Where? - The Picnic - The Little Turtle - What Animals Eat - Money Thank you for looking! - Reading Comprehension Textbook Passages and Questions Education 100% Aligned with STAAR Standards for Reading Comprehension! These books are designed to prepare your students for the Reading portion of the State of Texas Assessment of Academic Readiness (STAAR). Many states measure achievement in reading by assessing student progress on benchmark objectives identified in their state standards. The state of Texas is one of those states. This book provides teachers with a variety of reading passages and questions that help assess student knowledge of reading standards tested on the STAAR. This practice book provides reading passages that consist of narrative text, expository text, and mixed passages. Expository passages include informative, biographical, autobiographical, and how-to selections. Mixed passages put two different kinds of writing together in one selection. Questions follow each passage. Each question is designed to assess a specific STAAR standard. Teacher Editions contain an answer key which tells you the type of passage, higher level vocabulary found in each passage, each standard tested along with its correct answer, and a list of possible extension activities. Teacher Editions also include a bibliography and a reading benchmark standards matrix showing which passage assesses which standards. Each of these workbooks provides hours of on-grade-level reading comprehension practice. Passages range in readability to allow for differentiated instruction. Close Reading 9-12 Answer Book & Copiable Test Forms is, firstly, a comprehensive collection of full answers and marking schemes for the comprehension activities offered in the accompanying textbook Close Reading 9-12. In addition, the questions offered in those interpretation activities are available here in photocopiable and re-designed format, with space for answers to be written beneath each question, in similar format to National Tests in Scotland. Teachers are thus allowed the opportunity to use the passages as realistic practice material for reading tests at Level D and the upper reaches of Level C. Also available: Close Reading 9-12 Pupil's Book (0340 91472 6) provides a wide selection of extracts with accompanying interpretation/comprehension-type questions. In addition, the 'Taking A Closer Look' section in each chapter focuses on a specific language feature from the passage and provides further explanations and practice exercises on that aspect of language, whilst a 'Follow On' section gives the opportunity to explore wider issues raised by the extract, plus ideas for extended writing.

South—and the heroism of one man in the face of blind and violent hatred One of the most cherished stories of all time, To Kill a Mockingbird has been translated into more than forty languages, sold more than forty million copies worldwide, served as the basis for an enormously popular motion picture, and was voted one of the best novels of the twentieth century by librarians across the country. A gripping, heart-wrenching, and wholly remarkable tale of coming-of-age in a South poisoned by virulent prejudice, it views a world of great beauty and savage inequities through the eyes of a young girl, as her father—a crusading local lawyer—risks everything to defend a black man unjustly accused of a terrible crime.

Each book in this series features 15 comprehension passages. Each passage is accompanied by three differentiated comprehension worksheets- one sheet aimed at lower ability pupils, one aimed at the middlerange and one for higher ability. It is envisaged that teachers may well end up using two of the three worksheets with each child as progress is made. The books cover a variety of genres and styles e.g. fiction, non-fiction, poetry, newspaper reports, etc. Some passages are taken from existing literature by well-known authors and some are original pieces written by the authors. The carefully worded questions include those with obvious answers to provide practice in writing clear, well-punctuated sentences, and those with less obvious answers so that higher ability pupils will need to 'read between the lines'. Once completed the worksheets will also provide evidence for teachers when monitoring pupils' progress and assessing their level. The series addresses strands 7 and 8 of the new Primary Framework for literacy, which refer to understanding, interpreting, engaging with and responding to texts, and also strands 11 and 12, which are concerned with sentence structure, punctuation and presentation.
