

Assistant Enforcement Inspector Sample Question Paper

A construction worker is helping tear down a dilapidated old house. He finds a box of old World War II documents inside the box. The discovery of those documents results in a string of horrific and gruesome murders. The community learns the hard way that words written on paper can cause blood to freely flow. Paper can cut a community. The sheriff and his investigators work tirelessly trying to unravel the mystery. Is there corruption within the defense industrial base? Are drug dealers infiltrating their community? Why are terrorists coming to their sleepy, safe community? The cops are in constant danger as they try and learn why those documents are causing so much death. No one is safe. There is a motive behind the murders. The cops are not superheroes and must learn the true motive. It's a motive that is more common and much more sinister than most Americans realize.
