"How do I relate to a God who is invisible when I'm never quite sure he's there?" -- Philip Yancey Life with God doesn't always work out like you think it should. High expectations slam against the reality of personal weaknesses and unwelcome surprises. And the God who, you've been told, wants a personal relationship with you may seem remote, emotionally unavailable. Is God playing games? What can you count on this God for? How can you know God? This relationship with a God you can't see, hear, or touch--how does it really work? Reaching for the Invisible God offers deep, satisfying insights to the questions you are sometimes afraid to ask. Honest and deeply personal, here is straight talk on Christian living for the reader who wants more than pat answers to life's imponderables. Ultimately, Yancey shifts the focus from your questions to the One who offers himself in answer. "A brilliant book. It is both profound and simple, the best blend, in my view. Simple is neither shallow, nor simplistic. The sections on doubt and God's 'absence' are classics." -- Rick Warren, pastor and author, The Purpose Driven Life manner. Beginning with the three dimensions of space, he probes into the mysteries of the seven dimensions of God." He says, "The culmination of all our earthly and heavenly endeavor is Oneness" - oneness with one's neighbor, oneness with God the Father, and oneness with Christ. His treatment of the laws of the universe and the way he applies them to human experience is highly suggestive and practical. Dr. Clark then applies these discoveries to the problems of life - to friends, to health, to guidance and to finance. Finally, the author shows us how to look beneath and beyond the senses to their spiritual reality - beneath confusion lies stillness, beneath confusion lies perfect pattern, etc. This is a book for adventurers with God.

What's a cross-cultural discipler? It's someone who crosses distinct cultural barriers—whether at home or abroad—to share the gospel and develop other effective Christian disciples. Think of the apostle Paul who was born into a Jewish heritage but preached in Greece and Rome among other places, or modern day missionaries, both short-term and long-term, who bravely go where God sends them despite the challenges of language and lifestyle differences when they get there. Called to Reach is a much-needed book of encouragement and training for cross-cultural disciplers new and old. Based on the authors' dynamic experiences, it defines seven characteristics that best enhance the effectiveness of disciplers in overcoming cultural barriers and emphasizes the importance of personally growing in spiritual maturity with every outreach opportunity. Throughout, Jesus is presented as the model cross-cultural discipler, for He left the culture of Heaven to disciple us in our earthly culture.

Talking to God. Our godly prayers or faith words spoken are the effective weapons against Satan, his demonic angels, and evil assignments. Whatever we are saying over our life situations, the life of our loved ones, or the world in general, is what will take place or manifest in this earth realm. Our words create life or death, and the good news is that we are responsible for it all. Why is this good news? Because we alone control what we say and what words we use regarding our life. More importantly, we can make our words line up with God's Word, which is LIFE, if we choose to.

Reaching for your blessing and pulling them down. And I will give into thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Are you speaking the word out of your mouth, but from your heart? You don't believe what you are saying. Look at this in the natural. I have a peach tree in August. The peach is ripped on the tree. Now (get this), where are peaches? They are not on the ground. They are hanging on the peach tree ready to be pulled off or down. You need a ladder to pull the peach down and if you want them bad enough, you will reach up and get your peach. Now take that same determination and reach for your blessing. Reach God's heart. A son knows how to reach his dad. To all the young men and women who have a college education but you're still having problems, and you think that because your father or mother with a second grade education, you feel they are not educated enough to talk to, that they don't understand. You have not read the book of Proverbs 6:20-21 - My son (and daughter), keep your father's command, and do not forsake the law of your mother. Bind them continually upon your heart; tie them around your neck. The wisdom that comes from your mother and father, the biggest book cannot retain it. Life experiences are priceless. So don't look down your nose on mom and dad because you have a college degree. When have you said thank you? You call everyone except mom and dad.
