This book was birthed as a result of seeing many sincere Christians falling into heresy, myths, and fairy tales spun by irresponsible preachers who would speak anything in order to gain an audience through lies and deceit. The contents of this book are not fictional. They were all painstakingly tested and lived in order to test the doctrines learnt in the modern churches. This book is dedicated to help those who want to move in the Spirit of God, to be truly led by him and not by man-made rules and teachings, which have no power to manifest the presence of God in their walk. The author teaches how to hear from God and the main principles or laws in the kingdom of God that is true kingdom living. The author was ordained and called by God through three distinct verses given supernaturally by the Holy Spirit; these are Numbers 33:33, Job 33:33, and Ezekiel 33:33.

Here the Prince of preachers, the Master Teacher, utters the words that the Father gave Him to speak. This volume also includes inspirational thoughts regarding Christ's teachings regarding the Spirituality of the Law, the True Motive in Service, Not Judging but Doing, and the Lord's Prayer. Thoughts From the Mount of Blessing contains Christ's greeting, not only to those who believe, but to the

We do know that God is love and everything He does is out of His love for you. God's love is so glorious, magnificent, and splendid that He sent His son to die on the cross for you to free you from sin. God gave His son's life for yours. Jesus died so you could live.

us.” God shows His love for you by not only forgiving you of your sins, but by bringing you into His family. He has qualified you to share in His inheritance of the saints. (Col 1:12) This inheritance includes salvation, strength, hope, peace, comfort, wisdom, fellowship and so much more! God's love justifies your life and fills you with hope for the future. “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.” Death has no power over those who love and are loved by God. And that is you and that is me. Paul the Apostle says he does not believe that anything can separate us from the love of God. God loves you and your insecurities. He is teaching you how to love yourself and how to love others. He is showing you the true meaning of His agape love and what it means to truly be loved. Love is the greatest gift one could ever give, and it is the greatest gift one can ever receive. The bible says that out of faith, hope and love, love is the greatest of the three. You have that love. Romans 8:35-39 NKJV “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: “For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.” Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” God loves you in spite of your mistakes. power of igniting thought, the late Karl Rahner, S.J., opens up a creative new understanding of prayer.

According to the Foundation for Suicide Prevention, every sixteen minutes someone in America dies by suicide. There were more suicide deaths of young Americans in 1995 than deaths from cancer, heart disease, AIDS, birth defects, stroke, pneumonia, influenza and lung disease combined. In 2010 it is still the third leading cause of death of young people ages 15-24. Studies suggest that the great majority of them suffered from a diagnosable mental illness, and that most of them received either no treatment or inadequate treatment. Ryan suffered from a mental illness, that neither he nor his family understood, that did not respond to treatment, and resulted in his death. The scar across our hearts still opens, reminding us that learning to live without him is the work of a lifetime. We are forced to face what cannot be changed, and to trust the Creator for what we cannot now see. The act of writing became for me, a spiritual journey to probe the promise of beauty within the darkness, to seek understanding in mystery, and to believe once again in life after death.

To begin with I am a testimony for I was born blind; Suffered of issue of blood in 1987. I was given six (6) months in 1997 by my physical treating physician to live but God is so marvelous. In 2001, was knee problem, amputation was suggested if no improvement. As blessed cured; I survived being scammed and duped in 2008 by a dubious conned artist. I was also being told 2010 by the Hematologist, "Caroline, I think you have cancer" and that power of love of God changed that too. I thank God, this for my healing; I am inspired to be highly motivated to help others to know His good works and press on! Through faith and that power God is He is wonderworking spiritual power and the very real and true when you call on His name is only way to touch Him and receive healing.
