English for Lower Attainers is designed to meet the needs of those children in the Junior years, whose reading and writing skills are below the average for their year. These children may not achieve their full potential in the whole-class shared section of the literacy lesson because of the complexity of the shared texts involved. English for Lower Attainers aims to provide: texts related to the range section for the appropriate year of the National Literacy Strategy Framework; texts with a reading ability level two years below chronological age; tasks which support reading and provide a bridge into writing; practice in essential word and sentence skills, in the context of a complete text; clear and supportive notes for teachers or assistants.

Sensitive and critical issues are made readable and accessible by the magazine-style format of these texts. More attractive to all ability levels than traditional textbooks Each student magazine is supported by a detailed Teacher's Book, providing starter and lesson/tutor activities for every page of the magazine, ideas for work and discussion and targeting key PSHE and Citizenship skills. Rigorously develops subject skills and knowledge as laid out in the National Curriculum and QCA Scheme of Work.

Designed for children at Key Stages 2 and 3 (ages 7 to 14) this atlas addresses curriculum themes on weather, communications, economic activities, the environment and population. Divided into 4 sections: Mapping Skills, the British Isles, Historical and The World.

It is 1916 and Europe is at war. From the poverty of the Dublin slums twelve-year-old Jimmy Conway sees it all as glorious, and loves the British Army for which his father is fighting. But when war comes to his own streets Jimmy's loyalties are divided. The rebels occupy the General Post Office and other parts of the city, and Jimmy's uncle is among them. Dublin's streets are destroyed, business comes to a halt. In an attempt to find food for his family, Jimmy crosses the city, avoiding the shooting, weaving through the army patrols, hoping to make it home before curfew. But his quest is not easy and danger threatens at every corner.
