January 1, 2011, I was elected by my church body as a Pentecostal deacon for a three year term. As of this writing, I've been in the position for seven months. I can't really point you to an official non-Scriptural explanation of what a Pentecostal Deacon is, because so far I'm not sure if something like that exists.

Deaconhood: What is a Pentecostal Deacon?

Some churches use the word deacon simply to honor a faithful member. In others, a deacon is a lay pastor who performs nearly every duty traditionally associated with fully ordained pastors. At Christ Church, deacons are spiritual leaders who care for the flock according to their level of gifting, training and experience. Some teach.
