A sheltered girl spins a tale of her involvement with her mother in a years-old series of killings—in this meditative Arabian Nights of murder-in-retrospect reminiscent of Rendell's Barbara Vine byline. Rendell's Scheherazade is Liza Beck, whose aptly named mother Eve, obsessively attached to Shrove House, the splendid, isolated estate in whose gatehouse she lives, has kept her from all ...

Ruth Rendell - The Crocodile Bird (1993) Audiobook.

The Crocodile Bird was a slow read and tough to get through. If it were by another author, I would've put it away, but I love Rendell. I got through it but found it predictable. Simisola is one of the best Rendell mysteries. The characters are well-drawn and the mystery pulls you in. The story is very well paced.
